The Best One Yet

The Keystone Dramatic Company at the Airdome have retained their best play for a farewell play to their patrons tonight, "Why Girls Leave Home," tells a story every person should hark in too. Every part of the play stands out prominent and is in the hands of a capable performer especially cast for the part suitable to them. A splendid line of comedy, love and pathos go hand in hand through the play. So don't miss this dramatic treat.

Any Kind of Stamps Now

Under a new ruling just adopted packages may now be sent by parcel post mail with any kind of postage stamps attached, the distinctive parcel post stamp being no longer necessary. The parcel post stamps are good on any kind of mail now. Another new ruling makes the rate five cents for insuring parcel post packages up to the value of $25 and ten cents for packages valued at from $25 to $50.

GOOD CROWD AT LAWN SOCIAL

A good sized crowd was present at the ice cream social given by the Epworth League of the Methodist church yesterday evening on the lawn between the homes of Paul Fisher and Dr. O. C. Baird. Music was furnished by the Lieurance orchestra. A nice sum of money was cleared by the League.

Roof Garden Sundaes—the best eat—served only at The Legitimate Drug Store Fountain.

Death of Mrs. Waldron

Mrs. Catherine Waldron, an aged woman, died this morning at 4 o'clock at the county home at Erie. The body was brought to Chanute shortly before noon today and taken to the home of M. A. Clover 631 South Malcolm avenue, from where funeral services will be held, probably tomorrow. No arrangements will be made until Mrs. Waldron's daughter arrives from Dunlap this afternoon.

Several weeks ago a sanitary commission held an investigation in the case of Mrs. Waldron, and she was adjudged insane. Since then she has been an inmate of the county home at Erie.

Cigarettes, engine sparks and matches set fire to threshing outfits and wheat fields in western Kansas Tuesday. In one instance boys were playing with matches, in another a cigarette thrown carelessly near a rick of straw have caused disastrous fires in Kansas wheat fields. Everything in the wheatfields is like tinder and only a spark is needed to cause flame.
